

PEARL RIVER HIGH SCHOOL

Summer Reading 2022 – Grade 8

Choose two books from the list below. We encourage you to take notes while you are reading. If you purchase your own books, you can also use post-it-notes or write in the margins. Read each book selected. When finished with each book, students should be prepared to discuss these three questions:

- Literary Elements – Note characters, conflicts (main problem), changes in plot, and resolution (how the problem is solved).
- The Triple T – what kinds of text-to-self, text-to-text, or text-to-world connections can you make with this book?
- The Wonderings – what questions came up while you were reading and may still be unanswered? These are not plot/summary, literal types of questions, but rather those that leave you thinking.
- The Aha! – identify and cite a passage (or 2) in the text that has importance to you as the reader, and know why you selected it.

ENGLISH 8 HONORS

Students must read and annotate a copy of How to Read Literature Like a Professor: For Kids by Thomas C. Foster and Fahrenheit 451 by Ray Bradbury. It is suggested that students purchase their own copies in order to make annotations easier. Additionally, Foster's book should be read BEFORE Bradbury's in order to help students facilitate their annotations. Students must also find a nonfiction article that correlates to any of the themes/motifs in Bradbury's novel and write at least one paragraph that establishes the connection between the novel and the non-fiction article.

Enjoy your summer reading and learning. We look forward to sharing our books in September.

English 9 Honors/ pre-AP

Students must read and annotate the following:

1. Excerpts from Mythology by Edith Hamilton
2. Thomas Foster's *How to Read Literature Like a Professor: For Kids. Students who were enrolled in English 8 Honors have already read this book in class, but I suggest reviewing the text prior to September.
3. The Strange Case of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde* by Robert Louis Stevenson (I recommend finding the Kaplan SAT edition -- it will help with the difficult vocabulary in the story.

See Miss Arney's webpage for helpful supplementary materials, and for further information on the English 9H pre-AP Summer Reading Assignment: Summer Reading Page

Students are encouraged to purchase their own copies of these books as they will be needed throughout the semester; however, if copies are unattainable, please contact Miss Arney.

Please read the introductory letter and information carefully.

I will be hosting updates in a temporary English 9H Google Classroom for the summer. Use this resource to ask and answer questions. Classroom Code: 2icqya2

Enjoy your summer reading and learning. We look forward to sharing our books in September.

Pearl River School High School

Summer Reading 2022 – Grade 10

Choose two books from the list below. We encourage you to take notes while you are reading. If you purchase your own books, you can also use post-it-notes or write in the margins. Read each book selected. When finished with each book, students should be prepared to discuss these three questions:

- The Triple T – what kinds of text-to-self, text-to-text, or text-to-world connections can you make with this book?
- The Wonderings – what questions came up while you were reading and may still be unanswered? These are not plot/summary, literal types of questions, but rather those that leave you thinking.
- The Aha! – identify and cite a passage (or 2) in the text that has importance to you as the reader, and know why you selected it.

English 10 Honors

Students must READ AND ANNOTATE THEIR OWN COPIES of the following:

- 1) Begin with the Introduction and Chapters 1-12 of Thomas C. Foster's How to Read Literature Like a Professor. This work will help you read more effectively and insightfully.
- 2) Then, read Books 1-12 ONLY of Homer's epic The Odyssey (in the Robert Fagles translation ONLY!).
- 3) Finally, read ONE of the following modern odyssey novels:
 - J. D. Salinger's The Catcher in the Rye
 - Paulo Coelho's The Alchemist
 - Mark Haddon's The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night
 - Sue Monk Kidd's The Secret Life of Bees

Note: Students should read Foster's book BEFORE reading The Odyssey, which should be read BEFORE reading the modern odyssey; as you read the modern odyssey novel, take notes right in the book (in the margins, on the inside book covers, on some, but not many, post-its) on how the plot, characterization, and themes of the novel echo and differ from the plot, characterization, and themes of Homer's original Odyssey.

See Ms. De Noyelles's webpage for further information on the 10 Honors Summer Reading Assignment.

Enjoy your summer reading and learning. We look forward to sharing our books in September.

A Child Called It

Pelzer, Dave

This book chronicles the unforgettable account of one of the most severe child abuse cases in California history. It is the story of Dave Pelzer, who was brutally beaten and starved by his emotionally unstable, alcoholic mother.

City of Glass

Clare, Cassandra

Vampires, werewolves, and fairiestraditional fantasy and modern humor

Funny in Farsi

Dumas, Firoozeh

In 1972, when she was seven, Firoozeh Dumas and her family moved from Iran to Southern California, arriving with no firsthand knowledge of this country beyond her father's glowing memories of his graduate school years here. In a series of deftly drawn scenes, we watch the family grapple with American English (hot dogs and hush puppies?—a complete mystery), American traditions (Thanksgiving turkey?—an even greater mystery, since it tastes like nothing), and American culture.

I Am Mordred

Springer, Nancy

When Mordred learns the identity of his father, he struggles with feelings of hatred, but also fights the fate which determines that he kill the good and gracious king.

I Am Morgan LeFay

Springer, Nancy

In a war-torn England where her half-brother Arthur will eventually become king, the young Morgan LeFay comes to realize that she has magic powers and links to the faerie world.

_(Only one of Nancy Springer's books may be chosen)

Maus (a graphic novel)

Spiegelman, Art

A graphic novel that describes one survivor's vivid Holocaust experience.

The Art of Racing in the Rain

Stein, Garth

Enzo, a dog, shares his amazing insight into the human condition.

The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night

Haddon, Mark

This is a wonderful depiction of an emotionally dissociated mind. Haddon uses humor to show great insight into autistic mind and brings the young narrator to life.

The Five People You Meet in Heaven

Albom, Mitch

Eddie is a wounded war veteran, an old man who has lived, in his mind, an uninspired life. His job is fixing rides at a seaside amusement park. On his 83rd birthday, a tragic accident kills him as he tries to save a little girl from a falling cart. He awakes in the afterlife, where he learns that heaven is not a destination. It's a place where your life is explained to you by five people, some of whom you knew, others who may have been strangers. One by one, from childhood to soldier to old age, Eddie's five people revisit their connections to him on earth, illuminating the mysteries of his "meaningless" life, and revealing the haunting secret behind the eternal question: "Why was I here?"

The Odyssey

Homer

The classic Greek epic poem about the adventures of Odysseus's fateful ten-year voyage home from the Trojan War.

The Secret Life of Bees

Monk Kidd, Sue

Living on a peach farm in South Carolina with her harsh, unyielding father, Lily Owens has shaped her entire life around one devastating, blurred memory - the afternoon her mother was killed, when Lily was four.

The Alchemist

Paulo Coelho

A young shepherd, Santiago, wants to venture forth for an adventure that takes him far from his home toward a treasure in mysterious Egypt. His journey brings him much more than he first imagines.

Pearl River High School

Summer Reading 2022 – Grade 11

Choose two books from the list below. We encourage you to take notes while you are reading. If you purchase your own books, you can also use post-it-notes or write in the margins.

Read each book selected. When finished with each book, students should be prepared to discuss these three questions:

- The Triple T – what kinds of text-to-self, text-to-text, or text-to-world connections can you make with this book?
- The Wonderings – what questions came up while you were reading and may still be unanswered? These are not plot/summary, literal types of questions, but rather those that leave you thinking.
- The Aha! – identify and cite a passage (or 2) in the text that has importance to you as the reader, and know why you selected it.

AP English Literature and Composition

Students in AP English Literature and Composition are required to read and annotate their own copies of the following:

1. Read the rest of Thomas C. Foster's How to Read Literature Like A Professor, (Revised Edition 2014) Chapters 12-27. [Do note that English 10H students already read this work from the Introduction to Chapter 11. If you are new to the Honors program at Pearl River High School, be sure to read ALL of Foster's How to Read Literature Like a Professor.] Read the rest of this book BEFORE you read the bildungsroman you choose from the list below.

2. AP English Literature students must also read one of the novels listed below. [See the AP teacher's website, the AP Summer Reading 2022 tab, for a synopsis of each of the titles below.] These works are examples of the bildungsroman, or coming-of-age novel, which "recounts the psychological or moral development of its protagonist from youth to maturity, when this character recognizes his or her place in the world." As you read this book, look for and reflect back on "a pivotal moment in the psychological or moral development of the protagonist of a bildungsroman"* and consider how this moment connects to the meaning of the author's work as a whole.

Jane Eyre by Charlotte Bronte (1847) Their Eyes Were Watching God by Zora Neale Hurston (1937) The Grapes of Wrath by John Steinbeck (1939) A Tree Grows in Brooklyn by Betty Smith (1943) Cat's Eye by Margaret Atwood (1988) All the Pretty Horses by Cormac McCarthy (1992) Atonement by Ian McEwan (2001) Purple Hibiscus by Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie (2003) All the Light We Cannot See by Anthony Doerr (2014) Sing, Unburied, Sing by Jesmyn West (2017) The Leavers by Lisa Ko (2017)

3. Mark Twain's The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn. A satire, an adventure story, and a critical look at slavery, moral quandaries and the hypocrisy of society – above all, here's one of the seminal works of American literature. Warning: this novel contains a racial epithet a disturbing number of times. We will discuss Twain's purpose in using this word, perhaps to excess, as well as the impact this word had on the reader in Twain's time and in today's society. READ THIS READER'S GUIDE BEFORE BEGINNING THE NOVEL. As you read this book, take note of the author's use of language, the prevalence of games, lies and truth, and the author's use of irony.

English 11 Honors

Read the rest of Thomas C. Foster's How to Read Literature Like A Professor, (Revised Edition 2014) Chapters 12-27. [Do note that English 10H students already read this work from the Introduction to Chapter 11. If you are new to the Honors program at Pearl River High School, be sure to read ALL of Foster's How to Read Literature Like a Professor.]

Students must read The Sun Also Rises by Ernest Hemingway and at least one other book from the English 11R list below.

All My Sons

Miller, Arthur

Joe Keller and Herbert Deever, partners in a machine shop during the war, turned out defective airplane parts, causing the deaths of many men. Deever was sent to prison while Keller escaped punishment and went on to make a lot of money.

A Moveable Feast

Hemingway, Ernest

A set of memoirs by Hemingway that discusses his years as a writer in the 1920's.

Animal Dreams

Kingsolver, Barbara

Codi Noline returns to the sleepy mining town of Grace, Arizona, to care for her father, who is suffering from Alzheimer's disease. It is a bad time for her: disappointed in her personal life, she has closed down her emotions in defense against a heart that cares too easily.

Atonement

McEwan

A young girl makes a life-changing mistake that haunts her for the rest of her life.

Cold Mountain

Frazier, Charles

The story of a wounded soldier who walks for months to return to the love of his life.

Everything I Never Told You

Celeste Ng

Lydia is dead. But they don't know this yet." So begins this exquisite novel about family living in 1970s small-town Ohio. Lydia is the favorite child of Marilyn and James Lee, and her parents are determined that she will fulfill the dreams they were unable to pursue. But when Lydia's body is found in the local lake, the delicate balancing act that has been keeping the Lee family together is destroyed, tumbling them into chaos.

Life of Pi

Martel, Yann

A whimsical book filled with sea adventures and fantasy, this little book deals with an Indian teenager as he grapples with his confusion over life in general, religion and animals.

Into the Wild

Krakauer, Jon

"God, he was a smart kid..." So why did Christopher McCandless trade a bright future--a college education, material comfort, uncommon ability and charm--for death by starvation in an abandoned bus in the woods of Alaska?

Persepolis

Satrap, Marjane (a graphic novel)

A graphic novel that depicts the story of a girl growing up in Iran during the Islamic revolution.

The Help

Stockett, Katherine

A story depicting the lives of African American maids working in white households in Mississippi during the 1960's.

Hillbilly Elegy

Vance, J.D.

Growing up in Appalachia may leave a person open to harsh criticism and stereotype, yet Vance delves into his childhood and upbringing to make a clear distinction between perception and reality. Born in Kentucky and shuffling among homes in Ohio, the author ended the cycle of poverty, abuse, and drug use after becoming a U.S. Marine and Yale Law School graduate. His memoir is less about his triumph and more about exposing the gritty truth of how a culture fell into ruin.

The House on Mango Street

Cisneros, Sandra

Esperanza Cordero, a girl coming of age in the Hispanic quarter of Chicago, uses poems and stories to express thoughts and emotions about her oppressive environment.

The Lovely Bones

Sebold, Alice

The Lovely Bones is the story of a family devastated by a gruesome murder -- a murder recounted by the teenage victim.

The Road

McCarthy, Cormac

This novel tells the story of a father and son's struggle to survive in a post-apocalyptic world.
*Contains disturbing imagery.

The Things They Carried

O'Brien, Tim

The Things They Carried is an unparalleled Vietnam testament, a classic study of men at war that brilliantly -- and painfully --illuminates the capacity, and the limits, of the human heart and soul.

Pearl River High School

Summer Reading 2022 – Grade 12

All incoming seniors taking English 12 will read The Last Lecture by Randy Pausch.

We encourage you to take notes while you are reading. If you purchase your own books, you can also use post-it-notes or write in the margins. When finished with the book, students should be prepared to discuss these three questions:

- What do you believe is the author's purpose in writing this book?
- What is your perspective of what an Imagineer is and how are you imagineering your own journey to college?
- Which three lessons from the book speak to you the strongest?

This book will be the first text studied in the course.

Students enrolled in RCC English should complete the assignment below.

RCC English

For specific guidelines on how to complete your assignment, please see the information on the RCC Summer 2022 Google Classroom page. Students can join the Google Classroom using the code ygn7mjo.

Incoming seniors taking RCC English will choose two works from the following list:

- Khaled Hosseini's The Kite Runner
- Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie's Americanah
- Ta-Nehisi Coates' Between the World and Me
- Colson Whitehead's The Nickel Boys
- Bryan Stevenson's Just Mercy: A Story of Justice and Redemption
- Michelle Zauner's Crying in H Mart

In addition to two of the works listed above, you will be reading "Chapter 1: The Five Analytical Moves" in Writing Analytically.

You are required to complete three tasks over the summer:

1. Read Chapter 1 of Writing Analytically- the ideas presented in this chapter will help you articulate your ideas and understand the concepts that you should apply in your assignment. You should read the chapter before completing your writing assignments.
2. Read TWO books from the list provided
3. Write TWO responses (one for each book that you choose)- minimum of 500 words, 12 point font, double spaced. We will establish a due date for your final copy when the school year begins. Please use proper MLA citation. If you write a straightforward literary analysis of the novel, you are doing the assignment incorrectly. More specific information is available on the RCC Summer Google Classroom page.
